THE UNIVERSITY

Sonoma State University is one of the 23 campuses of the California State University. Located in the Sonoma County wine country, 48 miles north of San Francisco, the University has an enrollment of approximately 9,000 students. As of spring 2014, the University had 595 faculty with 41% tenure-track. The University is comprised of six schools: Arts and Humanities, Business and Economics, Education, Extended and International Education, Social Sciences, and Science and Technology. Degrees are offered in 46 majors at the bachelor's level and 15 at the master's level. Sonoma State University occupies 274 acres in the beautiful wine country of Sonoma County, in Northern California. Located at the foot of the Sonoma hills, the campus is just an hour’s drive north of San Francisco and 40 minutes away from the Pacific Ocean.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Computer Science Department offers a Bachelor of Science degree with over 350 majors, as well as a minor in computer science. The department faculty is diverse, and their collective areas of expertise span many theoretical as well as applied areas of computer science. Our Bachelor of Science in Computer Science program is rooted in the proud tradition of a liberal arts education and is based on the IEEE/ACM Computer Science Curricula. Teaching excellence and mentoring students are central to our mission.

We promote close collaboration of faculty and students that leads to research projects that are worthy of publication, as well as software system projects that span the boundaries of individual courses and lead to real-world research and industrial applications. Our students come to us with a diverse educational background and after graduation accept positions in a wide variety of companies such as Broadcom, FIS Mobile, Vertigo Software, Sonoma Technology, Apple, and Google, as well as pursuing graduate studies.

Prospective applicants are encouraged to visit the department’s webpage at http://www.cs.sonoma.edu.

DUTIES OF THE POSITION

The successful candidate will teach computer science courses across our Bachelor of Science curriculum, offer upper-division electives, demonstrate potential for a sustained research career, and actively foster an undergraduate research program. Collaborating with professionals in industry and seeking external funding are strongly encouraged. Teaching excellence is one of the most important duties of this position.

In addition to teaching and scholarship, faculty are expected to engage in academic advising, to assist the department with program assessment, administrative and/or committee work, and to serve on campus-wide committees. Sonoma State is committed to the teacher/scholar model and places an emphasis on faculty support of undergraduate research. Faculty are also encouraged to participate in integrated freshman- and sophomore-year programs when available in their schools.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

To be recommended for appointment, the candidate must have a Ph.D. in Computer Science or a closely related field. ABD applicants will be considered, but degree must be completed before August 22, 2016.

All research areas will be considered. We particularly encourage applicants with expertise in applied areas of computer science.

To be recommended for tenure, the candidate must demonstrate satisfactory performance in four areas: teaching effectiveness; scholarship, research, creative achievement and professional development; service to the University; and service to the community and public service. Although tenure may be granted at any time, contract provisions specify that “the normal period of probation shall be a total of six (6) years of full-time probationary service and credited service, if any. Any deviation from the normal six (6) year probationary period shall be the decision of the President following his/her consideration of recommendations from the department or equivalent unit and appropriate administrator(s).” Tenure is required for promotion above the level of Associate Professor.

RANK AND SALARY

The salary range is approximately $77,000 – $82,000. Rank and the range of the position are non-negotiable.
