THE UNIVERSITY

Sonoma State University is one of the 23 campuses of the California State University. Located in the Sonoma County wine country, 48 miles north of San Francisco, the University has an enrollment of approximately 9,000 students. As of spring 2014, the University had 595 faculty with 41% tenure-track. The University is comprised of six schools: Arts and Humanities, Business and Economics, Education, Extended and International Education, Social Sciences, and Science and Technology. Degrees are offered in 46 majors at the bachelor's level and 15 at the master's level. Sonoma State University occupies 274 acres in the beautiful wine country of Sonoma County, in Northern California. Located at the foot of the Sonoma hills, the campus is just an hour’s drive north of San Francisco and 40 minutes away from the Pacific Ocean.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Business Administration at Sonoma State University offers high-quality, relevant education in business to aspiring and practicing professionals, managers, and entrepreneurs in the private and public sectors. It does this in a liberal arts and sciences environment in which faculty emphasize the development and continuous improvement of the skills of critical thinking, effective communication, ethical reasoning, maintaining a global perspective, and applying disciplinary tools. The department offers programs of study leading to both the Bachelor of Science (BSBA) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) degrees. The BSBA program offers concentrations in accounting, finance, financial management, management, marketing, and wine business strategies. The graduate program includes a professional MBA, a wine business MBA, and an executive MBA.

DUTIES OF THE POSITION

The standard teaching load is 12 units, consisting of no more than three regular classes per semester. Undergraduate business classes are four units, whereas graduate business classes are three units. The successful candidate will be expected to teach a variety of courses in the Accounting area; expertise in auditing, taxation, or financial accounting is preferred. In addition to contributing positively to teaching and learning with a diverse student population, faculty members are expected to engage in scholarship and to provide service to the University and to the greater community. As an AACSB-accredited program, all faculty are expected to maintain AACSB's 2013 Business Accreditation Standard 15 faculty qualification category – Scholarly Academics (SA) status.

In addition to teaching and scholarship, faculty are expected to engage in academic advising, to assist the department with program assessment, administrative and/or committee work, and to serve on campus-wide committees. Sonoma State is committed to the Teacher/Scholar model and places an emphasis on faculty support of undergraduate research. Faculty are also encouraged to participate in Freshman and Sophomore year programs when available in their schools.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

To be recommended for appointment, the candidate must have a Ph.D in Business Administration with a specialization in Accounting, or a related field. ABD’s will be considered; however, all requirements for the doctoral degree must be completed by August 22, 2016. An earned doctorate in Business Administration and completion of an AACSB Bridge program in Accounting is also acceptable. The ideal candidate will have an active stream of research as evidenced by recent peer-reviewed publications and/or a set of well-developed working papers, as well as have professional work experience in public accounting or in private industry. A CPA license and at least one year of teaching experience is preferred but not required.

To be recommended for tenure, the candidate must demonstrate satisfactory performance in four areas: teaching effectiveness; scholarship, research, creative achievement and professional development; service to the University; and public service and service to the community. Although tenure may be granted at any time, contract provisions specify that "the normal period of probation shall be a total of six (6) years of full-time probationary service and credited service, if any. Any deviation from the normal six (6) year probationary period shall be the decision of the President following his/her consideration of recommendations from the department or equivalent unit and appropriate administrator(s).” Tenure is required for promotion above the level of Associate Professor.

RANK AND SALARY

Appointment will be at the level of Assistant Professor. In exceptional circumstances the rank of Associate Professor may be considered. Salary to be determined based upon experience and qualifications.
