FACULTY EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

DEPARTMENT OF KINESIOLOGY

Full-Time (Tenure-Track)
Assistant Professor
Starting Mid-August 2015

Refer to 103826 on all correspondence and inquiries regarding this position.

THE UNIVERSITY

Sonoma State University is one of the 23 campuses of the California State University. Located in the Sonoma County wine country, 48 miles north of San Francisco, the University has an enrollment of approximately 9,000 students. As of spring 2013, the University had 497 faculty with 47% tenure-track. The University is comprised of six schools: Arts and Humanities, Business and Economics, Education, Extended and International Education, Social Sciences, and Science and Technology. Degrees are offered in 45 majors at the bachelor’s level and 16 at the master’s level. Sonoma State University occupies 274 acres in the beautiful wine country of Sonoma County, in Northern California. Located at the foot of the Sonoma hills, the campus is just an hour’s drive north of San Francisco and 40 minutes away from the Pacific Ocean.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Kinesiology programs lead to the BS or MA degrees. In both programs a core of courses is required. Beyond this core, the kinesiology student chooses a concentration of courses with a specific focus. The undergraduate may select Physical Education, Adapted Physical Education, Exercise Science, Lifetime Fitness, or Interdisciplinary Studies in kinesiology. Theoretical and practical learning experiences are an important part of all concentrations.

The curriculum offered by the Department of Kinesiology prepares graduates to apply kinesiological principles to the acquisition, performance, and refinement of motor skills and to the use of physical activity as an educative tool and a medium for health promotion, personal well-being, and participation in an active lifestyle. The curriculum addresses human movement across the life span from biological/physical, behavioral, sociocultural, and humanistic perspectives, with attention given to the unique and common needs of all people in a wide variety of contexts and conditions.

Prospective applicants are encouraged to peruse the Department’s web page at http://www.sonoma.edu/kinesiology/.

DUTIES OF THE POSITION

Assistant Professor in Kinesiology: Exercise Science & Lifetime Physical Activity. Primary teaching responsibilities will be undergraduate and graduate Exercise Science and Lifetime Physical Activity courses. Additional responsibilities include developing a line of research, writing grant proposals and/or other scholarly activities, active participation in professional organizations in kinesiology or related fields, developing internship/field experience sites for majors, and developing new courses to expand course offerings in the major.
In addition to teaching and scholarship, faculty are expected to engage in academic advising, to assist the department with program assessment, administrative and/or committee work, and to serve on campus-wide committees. Sonoma State is committed to the Teacher/Scholar model and places an emphasis on faculty support of undergraduate research. Faculty are also encouraged to participate in Freshman and Sophomore year programs when available in their schools.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

To be recommended for appointment, the candidate must have a PhD in Kinesiology or closely related PhD with an emphasis in Applied Exercise Science. The candidate should demonstrate expertise in such areas of Kinesiology as Exercise Physiology, Strength & Conditioning for Health Performance; Personal Fitness & Wellness; Lifetime Physical Activity Across Diverse Populations; and Sport and Exercise Nutrition. The candidate should have a cross-disciplinary background and approach kinesiology from a psychological/behavioral sciences, humanities and life sciences perspective.

The candidate should also be qualified to participate in the supervision of internships and field based experiences. The candidate should demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively with faculty, staff and students. Preference will be given to candidates with evidence of successful teaching at the college/university level; successful teaching and/or working with a diverse student population; strength and conditioning certificate (e.g. CSCS, CPT), evidence of research, scholarly publications, and/or other scholarly activity; and participation in professional organizations at the state and national levels.

To be recommended for tenure, the candidate must demonstrate satisfactory performance in four areas: teaching effectiveness; scholarship, research, creative achievement and professional development; service to the University; and public service and service to the community. Although tenure may be granted at any time, contract provisions specify that "the normal period of probation shall be a total of six (6) years of full-time probationary service and credited service, if any. Any deviation from the normal six (6) year probationary period shall be the decision of the President following his/her consideration of recommendations from the department or equivalent unit and appropriate administrator(s).” Tenure is required for promotion above the level of Associate Professor.
