OUR COMMITMENT

Guided by our core values, Sonoma State University offers an exceptional educational experience that fosters intellectual, cognitive, social, and personal growth. As the only member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges in California, we are uniquely positioned to foster ethical exploration, civic engagement, social responsibility, and global awareness combined with a solid foundation in an academic discipline. We have a strong commitment to graduating students who have the ability to think critically and communicate effectively in an ever-changing world. The unique campus culture fosters our Seawolf Commitment to integrity, respect, excellence, and responsibility and is integrated into all campus life. We nurture inclusive excellence through a celebration of the rich diversity of our local communities and our interconnected global economy. Members of the University community are expected to work effectively with faculty, staff, and students from diverse ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds. SSU is especially interested in candidates who make contributions to equity and inclusion in the pursuit of excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service.

THE UNIVERSITY

Sonoma State University's beautiful 274-acre campus is located in Sonoma County wine country, an hour north of San Francisco. The campus offers the ideal setting for teaching and learning and access to a community of rich cultural, environmental, and recreational opportunities. Founded in 1960, Sonoma State University is one of the 23 campuses of the California State University System. As members of the largest public higher educational system in the nation, we provide accessible, high quality education to more than 9000 students. Sonoma State University is proud to be a Hispanic Serving Institution committed to achieving the goals of equal opportunity and endeavors to employ faculty and staff reflecting the ethnic and cultural diversity of the region and state.

FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to teaching and scholarship, faculty are expected to engage in service to the department, school, and community. Sonoma State is committed to the Teacher/Scholar model and places an emphasis on faculty support of undergraduate research. Faculty are also encouraged to participate in our distinctive, high-impact Freshman and Sophomore year programs and to foster our commitment to the CSU Graduation Initiative 2025 through excellent teaching, advising, and mentoring. Potential applicants are encouraged to review the University's Reappointment, Tenure and Promotion Policy. All faculty are required to have the ability to work effectively in a multicultural environment.

THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Business Administration at Sonoma State University offers high-quality, relevant education in business to aspiring and practicing professionals, managers, and entrepreneurs in the private and public sectors. It does this in a liberal arts and sciences environment in which faculty emphasize the development and continuous improvement of the skills of critical thinking, effective communication, ethical reasoning, maintaining a global perspective, and applying disciplinary tools. The department offers programs of study leading to both the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) and Master of Business Administration (MBA) degrees. The BSBA program offers concentrations in accounting, finance, financial management, management, marketing, and wine business strategies. The graduate program includes a professional MBA, a wine business MBA, and an executive MBA.

Prospective applicants are encouraged to visit the School of Business and Economics web page at: www.sonoma.edu/sbe/

DUTIES OF THE POSITION

The standard teaching load for this position is 12 units, normally comprised of three 4-unit courses per semester. The candidate is required to engage in scholarly activity including publication in refereed journals. All faculty are expected to maintain the AACSB's Business Accreditation Standard 15 faculty qualification as a Scholarly Academic (SA). In addition to teaching and scholarly activities, the incumbent will be expected to provide 3 additional units of service to the university. This service may include but is not limited to academic advising, assisting the departmental, school and university committees, and engaging in service to the local and regional communities.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

To be recommended for appointment, the candidate must hold an earned Ph.D. or D.B.A. in Business Administration. The candidate's primary teaching or research emphasis must be Social Entrepreneurship or Social Innovation, and there should be demonstrated success in teaching courses in these areas. Candidate must have completed a significant amount of graduate-level coursework in Social Entrepreneurship, Social Innovation, or related fields. Strong preference will be given to candidates who have earned the doctoral degree from institutions accredited by either AACSB or EQUIS. Candidates with an earned doctorate in a related field who have successfully completed the AACSB bridge program in Management with the above-mentioned emphases will also be considered.

A demonstrated track record of scholarly output in Social Entrepreneurship or Social Innovation leading to publication in peer-reviewed journals will be highly preferred. In addition, activities involving service to the university and external communities as well as experience with a diverse student community are also desirable. Significant practical professional experience in fields related to Social Entrepreneurship, Social Innovation, or Entrepreneurship will be viewed positively. All of our faculty have a demonstrated commitment to teaching and advising students from diverse backgrounds and are expected to participate in the mission of building an academic community that fosters inclusive excellence for all members.

A secondary emphasis in Entrepreneurship, Data Analytics, or Statistics is highly desirable. Strong preference will be given to candidates with significant graduate-level coursework in Entrepreneurship, Data Analytics, and/or Statistics and demonstrated success in teaching courses in these areas.

For appointment at the Associate Professor level, the successful candidate must demonstrate a history of significant accomplishments on all the criteria listed above. Additionally, for appointment at the Associate Professor level, it is highly desirable that the candidate have significant experience (a) serving in faculty or professional leadership positions and/or (b) building relationships with stakeholders in other disciplines or in the community.

To be recommended for tenure, the candidate must demonstrate satisfactory performance in four areas: (1) teaching effectiveness; (2) scholarship, research, creative achievement, and professional development; (3) service to the University; and (4) public service and service to the community. Although tenure may be granted at any time, contract provisions specify that "the normal period of probation shall be a total of six (6) years of full-time probationary service and credited service, if any. Any deviation from the normal six (6) year probationary period shall be the decision of the President following his/her consideration of recommendations from the department or equivalent unit and appropriate administrator(s)." Tenure is required for promotion above the level of Associate Professor.

RANK AND SALARY

Salary, service credit, and rank depends upon academic preparation and professional experience. The salary range for this position is $114,100-$117,660.
