

The Advising Center Commitment

As members of the Advising Center, together we commit to the highest ethical standards for ourselves and others.

Integrity: We will be genuine, honest, and transparent. We will be clear, consistent, and follow-through on explicit and implicit expectations.

Excellence: We will maintain an open and learning mindset while striving to exceed expectations through teamwork and innovation.

Respect: We will honor the diversity of all communities by valuing the various approaches and contributions to student success. We will practice active listening, empathy, civility and kindness.

Responsibility: We will hold ourselves and others accountable to the needs and successes of our students. We will uphold professionalism and maintain the belief that it is an honor to advise.
