Advising Announcements
Please note the following changes to the lower division requirements and general notes about classes for the Fall 2012.

I. ArtS 101 and ArtS102 are being replaced by ArtS 104 plus ArtS 103
   • Studio majors who have not taken 101 or 102, should be encouraged to enroll in 104
     Plus 103 (Shop Safety) for a total of 5 units.
   • Students who have only taken 101 and still need 102 have a couple of options
     o Take 102 this Summer though Extended Education
     o Take an additional 3D beginning studio (E.G. Beg. Sculpture or Ceramics)

II. ArtS 491, the Visiting Artists Lecture Series, will count towards one unit of the C1 Upper Division GE requirement.

III. ArtH 160, The Art History Learning Community will count towards ArtH 210 & 211.
    However the Learning Communities are generally geared for incoming freshmen. ArtH 210 and 211 will continue to be taught every semester.

IV. ArtS 498 Experiments in New Media, w/ Stephen Galloway. Students will be working with sound, video and installation. This course is open to all advanced level art majors in any emphasis.

V. ArtS 329, Intermediate Ceramics, will be focusing on wheel based ceramic art techniques.

Updated Studio Major Core Requirements

Traditional Track
ARTS 101 Art Fundamentals (2D) 3 units
ARTS 102 Art Fundamentals (3D) 3
ARTH 210 Introduction to Art History 3-4
ARTH 211 Introduction to Art History 3-4

Accelerated Track
ARTS 104 Art Foundations (2D & 3D) 4
ARTS 105 Shop Safely 1
ARTH 160 Intro to Art History, LC* 8
(LC= A Learning Community, taught over two semesters and count in GE areas A1 & C3)

Complete the following two courses to total 6 units:
ARTS 202 Beginning Drawing 2
ARTS 204 Beginning Life Drawing 2
ArtS 210 Intro to Digital Arts 2