After admission to Sonoma State University, students are encouraged to register with DSS by contacting the office and providing documentation of their disability.

Students with disabilities who register with DSS are eligible for a variety of services and accommodations.

All services and accommodations are determined on an individual basis and will vary from one student to the next depending on State and Federal laws, University policy, disability verification and professional judgment.

GETTING STARTED

Students with disabilities who request services should:

- Contact the Disability Services for Students office to request services
- Set up an appointment to meet with a DSS advisor
- Provide documentation of their disability to the DSS office

Visit us online at: sonoma.edu/dss

SERVICES MAY INCLUDE:

- Disability management advising
- Classroom accommodations
- Test taking accommodations
- Alternate media
- Assistive technology

DISABILITY SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

REQUIREMENTS FOR ACCOMMODATIONS:
ACCOMMODATION, NOT REMEDIATION.

Like all campuses within the CSU system, Sonoma State University has admission criteria designed to ensure that every student admitted is academically prepared to be successful in their chosen field of study.

While students with disabilities are provided with reasonable accommodations related to their needs, they are also held to the same academic standards and expectations as their non-disabled peers.

STUDENT EMPOWERMENT MODEL:
DIFFERENCES BETWEEN HIGH SCHOOL AND COLLEGE

Disability Services for Students emphasizes that it is the student’s responsibility to seek out and utilize appropriate accommodations and/or services.
