

School of Education

The F. George Elliott Scholarship Fund

F. George Elliott Exemplary Student Teaching Scholarship

Nomination Form

The F. George Elliott Exemplary Student Teaching Scholarship recognizes a credential candidate who is currently completing full time student teaching or internship and whose practice and professional dispositions exceed excellence on all program performance and disposition standards. It provides the recipient a scholarship in the amount of $4000 and the award of a crystal award from Tiffany or equivalent. Each program's nominee should excel in:

- Educating the whole student
- Implementing curriculum and pedagogy that are innovative, creative, and reflective of program preparation
- Reflecting on their practice
- Engaging with the school, community and families

A Scholarship Committee consisting of School of Education faculty and staff will review and evaluate all nominations using the following procedure:

- A member of the scholarship committee will visit each nominee at her/his student teaching placement or internship site. The visit will take place during the school day and will include an observation of the nominee's teaching and instructional interaction with students, and brief interviews with the nominee and his/her mentor or resident teacher. A member of our Scholarship Committee will be contacting each nominee to arrange a site visit.
- Members of the Scholarship Committee will conduct a personal interview with each nominee. At the interview, you will be asked to discuss your teaching in the context of the four areas of professional performance and dispositions listed above.
- The Scholarship Committee will review classroom performance evaluations provided by each nominee's university supervisor.

Nominee: _____

Credential Program: _____

Submission Deadline: Fall Semester: _____ Spring Semester: _____

In as much detail as possible, please describe the nominee's attributes, qualities, talents and abilities as they relate to the criteria listed above. Nomination narratives should be limited to two pages, single spaced, 1000 words.

Department Chair

Phone