The California Global Education Project

Practical Global Competency In the Classroom Setting:
A Workshop with Tim Forslund & Rachel Ambrose

Tim Forslund currently teaches World History, AP World History and Global Studies at Analy High School in Sebastopol, California. A graduate of Sonoma State University with a B.A. in History, Tim also holds a Masters in Education, with an emphasis in Global Studies in Education from the University of Illinois.

Rachel Ambrose teaches in the Social Science Department at Analy High School. She spearheaded the development of and wrote the curriculum for one of the first Ethnic Studies courses in Sonoma County and is actively advising other districts in their efforts to bring this critical class to their schools as well. She holds a B.A. in History from UCLA and an M.A. in International Relations from Central European University in Budapest, Hungary, where she lived for nearly a decade.

Contact Nancy Case Rico Case@sonoma.edu or visit us on Facebook @CGEPatSSU www.cgepssu.com