Fall 2015
School of Education Retreat
Friday, September 18, 2015  |  8:30 AM - 2:30 PM | Laguna de Santa Rosa | Heron Hall
Wifi password: 7075275075

PURPOSE:
Collectively, the School of Education faculty and staff (Undergraduate, Credentials, Graduates Programs and staff/administrators) will explore what Social Justice means in our work.

OBJECTIVES:
- Develop a working definition or framework of Social Justice
- Explore how this definition impacts efforts across key School areas including, Recruitment, Admissions, Assessment, Field experiences/school & agency relationships or collaborations.
- Align, re-define and/or prioritize our prior goals or areas of focus based on this emerging framework for Social Justice

SCHEDULE:
8:30-9:30: Coffee, getting situated, entry/warm-up activities
  - Activity 1: Walking Our Road (Heron Hall)
  - Activity 2: Where’s Waldo? (Covered Patio at Heron Hall)
  - Activity 3: Article/Book Circles (Gazebo Area)

9:30-10:00: Introductions; Announcements; Updates Dean Ayala
10:00-10:30: Naming the Moment Dean Kumashiro
10:30-11:15: Defining Social Justice in Education Dean Kumashiro
11:15-12:15: Operationalizing Social Justice in a School of Education Dean Kumashiro
12:15-12:55: Lunch (begin thinking about which working group to join or form)
1:00-2:00: How does our emerging understanding of SJ influence what we are doing now and what we could be doing in the future? What is working; what is near fix; what is a stretch?
  - Recruitment
  - Admissions
  - Field Placements/Community & Agency Partnerships
  - Assessment
  - Other
2pm-2:30: Circling Back to the Road: How shall we continue this work?
2:30-3:00 Thank you for your help and teamwork to quickly clean up and clear out of the building. See the sign up list on the beverage table for the best way you can help.