The Dean of Education invites all faculty and staff of the School of Education to this important meeting, with guest facilitator Kevin Kumashiro, Dean of the School of Education at University of San Francisco. Kumashiro will lead us collectively in an exploration of what social justice means in our work as faculty, staff and administration.

Kevin K. Kumashiro, Ph.D., is currently the dean of the School of Education at the University of San Francisco. He is a leading expert on educational policy, school reform, teacher preparation, and educational equity and social justice, with a wide-ranging list of accomplishments nationally and internationally as a scholar, educator, leader, and advocate. He has taught in schools and colleges across the United States and abroad, and has served as a consultant for school districts, organizations, and state and federal agencies.

LAGUNA DE SANTA ROSA FOUNDATION

The Laguna Environmental Center is a wildlife preserve on historic Stone Farm, a working farm; please leave pets at home (official service animals are welcome). The Environmental Center, including Heron Hall, is a smoke-free venue. For more information about Laguna de Santa Rosa and their environmental preservation and public education programs visit www.lagunafoundation.org.

DIRECTIONS:

Corner of Occidental Rd. and Sanford Rd., 900 Sanford Road, Santa Rosa, CA 95401

From Hwy 101, take Hwy 12 West towards Sebastopol (Go 3.4 miles). At the first streetlight, turn right on Fulton Road, then take the first immediate left onto Occidental Road (Go 3.2 miles). Turn right on Sanford Road. Laguna Foundation driveway is first on the right. A parking attendant will show you where you can park (so as not to block access for Stone farm’s agricultural equipment)
