Open Door Registration
Open Door registration for non-SSU students is available by contacting the School of Extended and International Education (SEIE). Open Door registration closes at the end of late registration for each session. Fees are due at time of registration. Permission of instructor is required in order to register after a class has begun. Visit sonoma.edu/exed/intersession/opendoor for the most current information about Open Door registration.

Financial Aid Information
If you received financial aid for the 2019-2020 academic year, you may be eligible for additional financial aid for our summer classes. Please see the Summer Session financial aid page (http://intersession.sonoma.edu/summer/session-current-student-financial-aid) for the most current information on applying for summer aid.

Notification of Eligibility for Summer Financial Aid
Financial Aid will contact you via your Seawolf email account to inform you of your financial aid options. If you are not eligible for enough financial aid to pay your full summer course fees, you must pay the difference by the published due dates.

Title IX
The California State University does not discriminate on the basis of sex, gender, or sexual orientation in its education programs or activities. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and certain other federal and state laws, prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in all education programs and activities operated by the university (both on and off campus). Title IX protects all people regardless of their gender or gender identity from sex discrimination, which includes sexual harassment and violence. For more information, please visit sonoma.edu/hr/erc/title-ix.

Payment
Payment can be submitted online via MySSU. For students who enroll via MySSU before the payment due date, payment for all sessions is due May 15. For students who enroll after May 15, payment is due at the time of enrollment.

Drop and Refund Information
SSU student may drop courses via MySSU. Open door students may drop courses by contacting SEIE. Please see our website for our most current contact information.

Drop/Refund Dates
Refunds are calculated based on the drop date.

4-week session classes:
• 100% refund if course(s) are dropped before the first day of the session.
• 65% refund if course(s) are dropped by the second day of the session.
• No refunds if course(s) are dropped on or after the third day of the session.

12-week session classes:
