Please complete the following forms online, print, and bring with you to your Sign-Up meeting with Human Resources Representative. You will have the opportunity to review the forms, ask questions, and add your signature and date as indicated on each form. In some cases, you may not receive these documents until your first day of employment. Please note your pay cannot be processed until you have completed the required forms.

You are required to sign new employee paperwork:
- if you are new to Sonoma State University (SSU), or
- if your previous employment at SSU ended more than one year ago, or
- if you previously held a Student Assistant position
