Exchange Settings for Mail on Mac OS 10.9

- Begin by opening System Preferences and selecting Internet Accounts.
- On the Internet Accounts page choose Exchange.
• Enter the requested credentials into the fields and click the Continue button.

• It should automatically detect the server settings; click Continue again.
• Select which services that you wish to connect to the server and click the Done button.

• Open the Mail application and it should begin retrieving your mail from the server.