9 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.
SATURDAY
MARCH 2, 2019

1801 EAST COTATI AVENUE
ROHNERT PARK, CA
94928

to the Sonoma State University campus to celebrate the life of Sonia Kovalevsky, the first woman to receive a Ph.D. in mathematics, and to celebrate the participation of all women in mathematics.

The day includes a keynote lecture, hands-on math activity, networking opportunities with local middle and high school students, tips on applying to college, career panel and a special workshop for teachers. These activities will encourage girls and young women to pursue degrees in STEM.

There is no charge for the event, but we expect you to stay for the entire day.

Lunch will be provided, as well as souvenirs for all participants.

Registration deadline:
2 p.m., February 16, 2019
