North Bay International Studies Project at Sonoma State University Presents

Teaching the Impact of Global Social and Economic Issues and Connecting to the Common Core

Integrating the Tony Blair Foundation Face to Faith (F2F) Program

A four day summer program for 20 high school and middle school educators to learn about the Face to Faith Program (F2F) and to participate in the development of an Educator Teaching Guide to help students engage in this program. During the workshop, educators will integrate the elements of the Common Core that are supported by the F2F program and develop a Standards/Common Core based lesson or unit on social justice, wealth, and poverty for their discipline. At the completion of the week, educators will be prepared to bring a Face to Faith unit and an online interaction into their classroom during the 2015-2016

$200 Honorarium for up to 20 middle and high school teachers.

Special Presenter
Simmi Kher, Education Consultant, Tony Blair Faith Foundation

More Information
For an application or further information, contact Miriam Hutchins at miriam.hutchins@sonoma.edu or call 707-664-2409.

Location: Sonoma State University

Dates: August 3-6, 2015

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Cost: 2 Units of SSU credit are available for $110

The Face to Faith Program (F2F) Tony Blair Foundation http://www.tonyblairfaithfoundation.org/projects/facetofaith brings students of different religions and cultures together using digital technology to connect schools in 19 countries. Face to Faith actively engages students from a range of cultures, faiths and beliefs in a technology based program focused on exploring a range of approaches to Global Issues.