

Sociology of Transgender Studies
SOCIOLOGY 370
Fall 2016

Contact Information:

Professor Dean

Office: Stevenson Hall, Department of Sociology, Phone: (707) 664-2599

Email: deanja@sonoma.edu

Prerequisites: Sociology major/minor or consent of the instructor

General Education: No

Class Description:

Examines transsexuality, cross-dressing, aspects of intersexuality and homosexuality, cross-cultural and historical gender diversity, and subcultural expressions of gender non-normativity. Transgender is an adjective that describes someone who moves away from a socially imposed boundary, which was un-chosen at birth. Explores the everyday life and social institutional arrangements of transgender individuals.

Required Assignments & Texts:

See syllabus.

Above is subject to change.