

School of Social Sciences

Brown Bag Series

Fall Term 2018

TUESDAYS 12-1pm in STEVENSON HALL 2011

- September 11 Emily K. Asencio, Criminology and Criminal Justice. Title: "Social Media Use: Examining the Effects of Social Media Use on Well-Being"
- September 25 Eric J. Williams, Criminology and Criminal Justice Studies. Title: "Critical and Ethical Thinking for Criminal Justice Professionals"
- October 2 Heather Smith, Psychology. Title: "Personal Relative Deprivation and Mental Health Among University Students: Cross-sectional and Longitudinal evidence"
- October 9 Emily Ray, Political Science. Title: "Stranger than Fiction: Silicon Valley and the politics of space exploration"
- October 16 Margaret Purser, Anthropology. Title: "Creating Memories across Fractured Landscapes: Highway 101 in the Neighborhood"
- October 23 Daniel Soto, Geography, Environment, and Planning. Title: "Electrifying the Remaining Billion Beyond the Grid"
- November 6 Alexis Boutin, Anthropology. Title: "Can Affective Interpretations of Bioarchaeological Data Increase Empathy and Reduce Prejudice?"
- November 13 Laura A. Watt, Geography, Environment, and Planning. Title: "Historical Research at the Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory (RMBL)"
- November 27 Peter Phillips, Sociology. Title: "Global Power Elite"
- December 4 Benjamin Smith, Human Development. Title: "Analogue Skin, Digital Masks: digital gaming and "Indian"-ness among Southern Peruvian boys"

You are welcome to bring lunch and a drink. Enjoy the presentation!