

School of Social Sciences

Brown Bag Series

Fall Term 2017

TUESDAYS 4-5pm in STEVENSON HALL 2011

- September 19 Matthew Paolucci Callahan, Psychology. Title “Perceptions of Transgender Women and Men in Public Restrooms: Correlates and gender differences”
- September 26 Laura Alice Watt, Geography, Environment and Planning. Title: “Building Science in Place: Establishing the Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory in the 1930’s and 1940’s”
- October 10 Emily Vieira Asencio, Criminology and Criminal Justice Studies. Title: “The Social Context of Self-esteem: Examining racial/ethnic differences in explaining the relationship between global and specific self-esteem for the friend identity”
- October 17 Brian Gillespie, Sociology. Title: “Care Network Structure and Risk Factors for Unreliable Care ”
- October 24 Glenn Brassington, Psychology. Title: “Diversity Resilience Training: a psychological intervention to buffer the effects of discrimination, racism, and stereotyped threat on academic performance in low income first generation college freshman”
- November 7 Melinda Milligan, Sociology. Title: “Container Capitalism and Charismatic Containers: Professional Organizers and the American Obsession with Organizing”
- November 28 Stephen Bittner, History. Title: “Revolutionizing the World? The Russian Revolution and Its Centenary”

You are welcome to bring a drink. Enjoy the presentation!