

JAPANESE AMERICAN INTERNMENT and COMMUNITY ARCHAEOLOGY

Join us for this FREE presentation highlighting the results of four field seasons of landscape archaeology at Amache, Colorado's WWII Japanese internment camp. The panel will feature former internees, students, volunteers, and faculty from multiple research years. Discussions will focus on the impact of collaborative research and the individual experiences of the panelists.

WHAT: PANEL DISCUSSION

WHEN: 15 April 2015, 7:00-9:00 pm

WHERE: The Cooperage (Room 3), Sonoma State University

Sponsored by the SSU Anthro Club, School of Social Science, Dept. of American Multicultural Studies, and the School of Arts and Humanities, in collaboration with:

