GENERAL INFORMATION

* Please read all instructions and the website carefully before submitting questions to the department. *

√ Non-SSU students: Accept Admission to SSU, sign up for the SSU transfer orientation [http://www.sonoma.edu/aa/us/orientation/transfer/] and check your MYSSU for further instructions.

√ More information will be provided at the MANDATORY IN-PERSON ORIENTATION ON MAY 1st from 1600-1900 in the Schulz Library Room 3001. This is an introductory Welcome and guide. Please wait to send questions until the orientation in May. Unless your question is on admission and registration.

√ AN ALL DAY SECOND MANDATORY IN-PERSON ORIENTATION WILL BE HELD ON AUGUST 15 FROM 0900-1900 in Schulz Library Rm 3001.

√ Textbooks are listed at the SSU Bookstore website. You are required to buy the book bundle from the SSU Bookstore. The textbook search function is located at: Book Store Textbooks

√ Not all required texts are included in the book bundle. These will need to be purchased separately, but will be available in the bookstore.

√ Registration: Please register sooner than later. You do not pay fees when you register. Do not worry we have a spot for you for nursing courses and will sort out lab groups when we meet together. When you register the classes are NURS 301 and NURS 303. They each have an accompanying clinical lab section that you will be auto enrolled into.

√ Class schedule for Fall:

  o N 301 Lecture: Monday & Wednesday 11:00-13:30
  o N 303 Lecture: Monday & Wednesday 08:00-09:50
  o N 301/303 Thursday/Friday Skills Testing: First 3 weeks on campus in skills lab from 0800-1700
  o N 301 / N303 Clinical days are Thursday & Friday from 0630-1630 following Skills Testing (first 3 weeks)

MENTORSHIP SOCIAL

√ The current students are excited to meet you! A mentor social will be scheduled. Stay tuned for date and time.

√ Each of you will be assigned an upper classmate as a mentor

√ Students have found this an invaluable and long lasting relationship

√ Get help from the day of admission and develop a life long colleague

√ Your classmates are excited to meet you all.

TIME COMMITMENT
- The first semester of the program includes two courses: N301, N303 for a total of 15 academic units.
- Between class time, preparation, reading, and assignments students spend 40 hours each week to be successful in the program.
- We recommend waiting to complete any needed GE until after this semester.
- We realize that many students must work while attending nursing school. Keep in mind the 40-hour a week time commitment of the program when scheduling your workweek.

LEARNING MANAGEMENT SYSTEM “MOODLE” & SEAWOLF ID
- All communication via email will be either through Moodle or Seawolf email. Not your personal email account. This is for security purposes and university policy.
- There are Moodle tutorials available on the main Moodle website. These are accessible without a SSU user ID or Password. It is highly encouraged that you view these tutorials before your classes begin in the fall.
- Click on the following link to find the tutorials: www.moodle.org
- You can log on for a demo as a student under the Moodle Features Demo. This will prepare you for learning to navigate Moodle.
- Most of your courses in the program will be a hybrid of Moodle and face to face. The specific N 301 and N 303 Moodle course sites will not be available until few days before the start of the semester.
- The course faculty will notify you via your Seawolf email account when the courses are available for your review and use.
- Get to know Moodle!
